"Pretzel City's present to those that must race every weekend"

Last year, Pretzel City Sports had loads of requests from folks about where they could race on the weekend before Christmas and after a ton of searching, we could not find a single one! So, we created this race a scant 10 days before holding it, advertised it totally by email since local races had already been held and lo and behold, 225 people showed up anyway. GO FIGURE! So, let's do it AGAIN; once again, giving the running community a reason to finish their shopping early!
