Taylor Nicole Seitzinger
11/9/1990 – 3/19/2009

Taylor was a standout athlete at Hamburg Area High School in Hamburg, PA, playing soccer, basketball, and cross-country. She was a straight-A student, Homecoming Queen, student council vice-president, and was looking forward to attending DeSales University after graduating where she was to study to become a physician's assistant and also play soccer.

Taylor was also an organ donor and even in her untimely passing, she was able to help someone. Her gift helped to give new hope and life to three individuals.

The Taylor N. Seitzinger Hamburg Area High School Scholarship Fund was established shortly after her passing to provide scholarships to graduating Hamburg Area High School students who will be furthering their education after high school and will be pursuing a four-year degree, with preference to those attending DeSales University and/or those who will be playing women's soccer in college. Recipients must have participated in school and community activities and demonstrated leadership. For more information on the Taylor N. Seitzinger Scholarship Fund, please visit www.bccf.org. Help us carry on the memory of such a wonderful person.
