

Pacer for Pets 5K

Runners and walkers of all ages are invited to participate in this 3.1-mile road race to help end pet overpopulation. The race route features the most scenic roads in Lancaster County Central Park.

Of course, dogs are welcome as long as they are well-behaved and leashed.

Participating in this event shows not only that you care about pets but also that you want to put pet overpopulation on paws!

Lancaster County SPCA

The LCSPCA is a local, independent, non-profit animal shelter. Founded in 2013 to address the county's pet overpopulation problem, LCSPCA is an open-admission shelter that never turns away an animal.

In 2015, LCSPCA received 5,840 animals. In addition to sheltering and providing medical care for homeless pets, LCSPCA also investigates animal abuse, operates a trap, neuter & release program for cats, and offers humane education programs.

Race Details:

The Pacer for Pets 5K is a 3.1-mile road race that includes a few hills. The race begins and ends near the Lancaster County Central Park Office, 1050 Rockford Rd. Ample parking will be available.
