Race cancellation policy:

The Berks Gymnastics 5K Run Committee reserves the right to postpone or cancel the race in the event of inclement weather or other unforeseen circumstances.

We will make every effort to hold the race as scheduled; however, the safety of participants and volunteers is of paramount importance. In addition, if we are informed by local authorities that conditions are too dangerous, we may postpone or cancel the race.

In such cases, race fees will not be refunded. Free or reduced entry to next year's race may be provided at the discretion of the race committee.

Please provide a valid email address on the registration form in the event that we need to communicate important information regarding the race. We will use email and update our Facebook page should the need arise.
