Join us at the Tamaqua Area High School football stadium as we lace up our shoes to honor the vibrant life and legacy of Isaac Curvey. A proud Tamaqua alumnus and dedicated Physical Therapist Assistant student at Penn State Hazleton, Isaac's passion for helping others and his competitive spirit on the gridiron left an indelible mark on our community. All proceeds from this event will go directly toward establishing a memorial scholarship in his name, ensuring that his commitment to health, athletics, and academic perseverance continues to support future students in their own journeys. Whether you are a seasoned runner or prefer a reflective walk around the grounds where Isaac once played, your participation celebrates a life cut tragically short but lived with immense heart.
